It S Not Because I

The more you lead a self-focused life, the more you're prone to discouragement. Every time you forget that it's not about you, you're going to get prideful or fearful or bitter. Those feelings will always lead to discouragement because they keep you focused on yourself. The Bible says in 2 Corinthians 4:5, "Our message is not about ...

The more silly things you did when you were younger the more you learn what not to do. There are plenty of older people who have lots of great talents and good values who end up without a job after 50. In my case here I am over 60, and so it is a shame for all these other people who can't get jobs because they are 'older'.
